

North Carolina A&T State University

2012 Celebration of

Native American Heritage

Month

Sponsored by:
Multicultural Student Center

Film Series:

Every Tuesday (2pm – 4pm)
throughout the Month of November
in the Multicultural Student Center

Overview:

Venture back at life in North America before the arrival of the Europeans, then follow the epic struggles of India Nations as the continent is re-shaped by contact. The series is a walk through the tragic events at Wounded Knee in 1890, and then travel back to the pre-Columbian continent to the Great Plains at the end of the 19th century.

Tuesday, November 6th - TOPICS: The Ancestors – Early Cultures of North America & Mexico – The Rise and Fall of the Aztecs

Tuesday, November 13th - TOPICS: Clash of the Cultures – The People Who Met Columbus & Invasions of the Coast - The English Settlements

Tuesday, November 20th - TOPICS: Cauldron of War – Iroquois Democracy and the American Revolution & Removal - War and Exile in the East

Tuesday, November 27th - TOPICS: Roads Across the Plains – Struggle for the West & Attack on Culture – “I Will Fight No More Forever”

Light Refreshments will be served & FREE to the campus community!!!

The Native American Art Museum Visit!

Wednesday, November 7th 2012 from 1pm to 3pm

(This is a walking to location trip)

200 N. Davie St.

Greensboro Cultural Center

Depart Campus at 12 noon

From MSC office

Multicultural Student Center’s

Thanksgiving Dinner

Thursday, November 8th 2012

6 to 8pm

Stallings Ballroom

Native America Storytelling

Facilitator:

Ms. Nora Dial-Stanly

Wednesday, November 28th

2pm to 4pm

In the Multicultural Student Center

204 Murphy Hall

All of these events are free!!!!

Contact MSC at 336.334.7800

for more information