

Housing and Residence Life

Program Emphasis and Quality

Academic Enhancement and Enrichment Program .

The AEEP six week program series ended September 28th. The programs were designed to raise awareness for our first year students, help them get better acclimated to campus. Statistics have proven the first six weeks are critical for first year students.

Residence Life

The GHD committee is working to revamp GHD training for the 2013. The committee has begun review of the current GHD application and the theme as well as the graphics for the flyer to be posted in the Graduate department.

- * The GHD committee has also begun review of the paperwork requirements.
- * The GHD committee has completed review and revision of the GHD timeline and the graduate school time line.
- * RHA is collaborating with SUAB on the Halloween Costume Party and Casino Night.
- * Recruitment efforts are underway to fill vacant positions.

Effectiveness and Efficiency

Academic Enhancement and Enrichment Program

AEEP continues to monitor finances and collaborating on programming for overall effectiveness.

Business Services

Operations Coordinator facilitated HRL staff training session titled, "Emergency Preparedness - - - Taking Proactive Steps to Help Prevent Emergencies"

Conducted and communicated research on proposed communication radios products

Working with university Staff Development Office to train staff on Prezi a technologically savvy alternative to PowerPoint.

Residence Hall Student Behavior and Conference Services

Benchmark schools in the UNC System on sending electronic behavioral letters. 13 out of the 17 schools send electronic letters.

Benchmark schools in the UNC System on summer conference packages.

Economic and Community Development Impact of the University

Academic Enhancement and Enrichment Program

Sister Circle participated in the Breast Cancer awareness walk on-campus in conjunction with staff from CAE.

Residence Hall Student Behavior and Conference Services

National Voter Registration day was Tuesday, September 18, 2012. A table was set up in the Village Quad to register students to vote. Housing and Residence Life student staff registered (30) students.