University Police Department Update
February 21, 2014

North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University

UNIVERSITY POLICE DEPARTMENT

- The North Carolina A&T State University Police Department (UPD) includes a staff of over 100 sworn and non-sworn personnel, organized into several areas: Office of the Chief, Administrative Services, Support Services, Patrol, CID (Criminal Investigations Division), K-9, Telecommunications, Accreditation, University Security, and Contracted Security.
- All of our commissioned officers are certified police officers in accordance with rules established by the North Carolina Criminal Justice Education and Training Standards Commission. All UPD commissioned police officers have successfully completed training and passed the Criminal Justice Education and Training Standards certification exam. They all are in compliance with Criminal Justice Education and Training Standards mandated in-service training that is required on an annual basis.
- The department has been accredited by CALEA (The Commission on Accreditation of Law Enforcement Agencies) since 2006. The department was reaffirmed for accreditation in 2009 and 2012. UPD has continuously met the requirements of over 400 standards that have been set forth by CALEA.
