

Proposed Mission Statement

The North Carolina A&T Investment Foundation shall operate exclusively for educational, scientific, and charitable purposes that benefit North Carolina A&T State University, its programs, and its faculty, staff and students by managing a fund for the purpose of investing assets designated for investment therein by any charitable, nonprofit foundation, association, trust, endowment or fund that is organized and operated primarily to support the University.