

New Policy—from Sec. 6.18 of the Faculty Handbook

NORTH CAROLINA AGRICULTURAL AND TECHNICAL STATE UNIVERSITY

SEC. II—FACULTY- Retirement 2.0

EMERITUS FACULTY

UNIT POLICY ACADEMIC AFFAIRS

Retired tenured faculty members with the rank of associate professor or higher who have rendered at least 10 years of service to North Carolina A&T State University are eligible for emeritus status at the rank held and in the department home at the time of retirement.

Emeritus faculty members are eligible to use campus facilities, participate in sponsored research activities (including serving as principal/co-principal investigators), serving on graduate student advisory committees (not as chair), etc. Emeritus faculty members are also invited to all University convocations and general faculty events, are listed in University catalogs and the telephone directory, and are provided access to the University's library and computing resources. Faculty office space may be provided if available.

Emeritus faculty members are not eligible to hold an elected faculty office or participate in faculty elections.

Faculty to be considered for emeritus status must be nominated by the department chair and approved by the dean, Provost and Executive Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs, the Chancellor, and the Board of Trustees.

This policy applies only to faculty/former faculty members.

REPEAL OF OTHER POLICIES

This policy repeals Sec. 6.18, “Emeritus Faculty Status,” of Chapter VI of The Faculty Handbook and any other policy on this topic that is not posted on the A&T “Approved Policies” website.

Date revised policy is effective: upon approval

Approved by the Chancellor

First approved: October 1, 1997

Revised: _____, 2018

Harold L. Martin, Sr.
Chancellor

Date signed for posting

Beryl McEwen
Provost and Executive Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs

Date signed for posting